Thank you for ordering the TSUNAMI unit! Your new TSUNAMI unit is sure to meet your expectations with top-quality performance!
==========

Model line: SEAWING
Unit: TSUNAMI
Height: three and a half scavengers
Weight: four and a half hippos (but she insists it's only four; agree with her for your own personal safety)

Your TSUNAMI unit comes with:
-(2) strings of pearls
-(1) copy of The Lost Princess
-(1) restraining order against all WHIRLPOOL units

Unpacking and rebooting

The TSUNAMI is an easily aggravated unit, so extreme caution must be exercised when unpacking. For your safety, we have included a few ways to safely unpack and reboot your TSUNAMI unit.

1. Have a RIPTIDE unit call out for her. Your TSUNAMI unit will emerge peacefully from the package and approach the RIPTIDE unit. While she is flirting with the RIPTIDE unit, approach the TSUNAMI unit from behind to access her mainframe to reboot.

2. Have the other units from the DRAGONETS OF DESTINY set talk amongst themselves. The TSUNAMI unit will break out of the package and begin bossing them around. While she is arguing with the GLORY unit, approach the TSUNAMI unit from behind to access her mainframe to reboot.

3. Have a WHIRLPOOL unit propose marriage to either an ANEMONE unit or an AUKLET unit. The TSUNAMI unit will agressively tear out of the package and confront the WHIRLPOOL unit. While she is strangling the WHIRLPOOL unit, approaching the TSUNAMI unit from behind to access her mainframe to reboot.

For the safety of you and your new TSUNAMI unit, we have included a list of which units the TUNAMI unit gets along best with, and a list of units that the TSUNAMI unit must never been alone in the same room with.

RIPTIDE unit
The RIPTIDE unit and TSUNAMI unit are both infatuated with eachother, and get along well. Keep in mind that the CORAL unit disapproves of the RIPTIDE unit, and therefore of his and the TSUNAMI unit's relationship. In order to keep her at bay, engage the CORAL unit in a discussion about the fine details of her writing. As long as the CORAL unit stays away from them, the RIPTIDE unit and TSUNAMI unit will be very happy together.

GLORY unit
The GLORY unit and TSUNAMI unit's relationship can range from "friendly rivals" to "inseperable best friends," depending on how often they see eachother. While the GLORY unit can annoy the TSUNAMI unit, the two are quite fond of eachother, even if they won't admit it. If a RIPTIDE unit ot DEATHBRINGER unit is nowhere nearby, it is possible for them to end up together with some encouragement.

WHIRLPOOL unit
The WHIRLPOOL unit and TSUNAMI unit are mostly incompatible. The TSUNAMI unit finds the WHIRLPOOL unit to be boring and a talon-licker, and the WHIRLPOOL unit veiws the TSUNAMI unit to be a feral, uneducated barbarian. However, with hard work and lots of encouragement from the CORAL unit, the TSUNAMI unit may be able to tolerate the WHIRLPOOL unit more easily. The process will go by more smoothly if a RIPTIDE unit is not present, and if you can convince your TSUNAMI unit to get her restraining order against WHIRLPOOL units lifted. It should be noted that the ANEMONE unit dislikes the WHIRLPOOL, and may "accidentally" throw a microwave in the bathtub while WHIRLPOOL is occupying it.

MORROWSEER unit
The TSUNAMI unit and MORRWSEER unit hate each other with a passion, and are highly incompatible. The TSUNAMI unit is not afraid to openly attack the MORROWSEER unit, so make sure that they are under constant supervision. Meanwhile, the MORROWSEER unit can tolerate the TSUNAMI unit, as he feels that she is more appropriate to act as the prophecy's SEAWING model rather than the SQUID unit.

Hygiene and health:
The TSUNAMI unit is very healthy and fit. However, unless the CORAL unit is around, the TSUNAMI unit will have trouble maintaining personal hygiene. She will need constant reminders to scrub behind her ears, and if she seems to be taking too long in the bath, she has most likely escaped the house from the bathroom and has hidden out with a nearby unit from the DRAGONETS OF DESTINY set. A STARFLIGHT unit will be helpful in keeping your TSUNAMI unit clean.

FAQ

My TSUNAMI unit keeps on bossing me around! How can I assert my dominance?

You don't.

My TSUNAMI keeps on trying to "toughen up" my neighbors' RAINWING models! How do I stop her?

A GLORY unit must have asked your TSUNAMI unit to help her prepare the RAINWING model line for fighting the NIGHTWING model line. The best course of action is to wait in a friend's basement until your TSUNAMI unit contacts you.

My TSUNAMI hasn't left the house for days and is acting gloomy! What do I do?

Your TSUNAMI unit is most likely lonely. Schedule to have over other units from the DRAGONETS OF DESTINY line, a RIPTIDE unit, or an ANEMONE unit to spend a few days with your TSUNAMI unit. If her behavior persists, she may be suffering from health issues to due lack of intake of raw fish. Visit the local sushi bar to perk her up.

We hope you enjoy your new TSUNAMI unit! Contact us with any questions or complains you may have!

I recently have been having problems with my MOONWATCHER unit. Awhile back i got a ANEMONE unit and TURTLE unit. At first they got a long fine. But after i bought the MOONWATCHER unit, my TURTLE unit destroyed my ANEMONE unit. My QIBLI unit and WINTER unit refused to speak to each other after the purchase and both deactivated. My ICICLE unit has starting destroying my other units ever since i got the MOONWATCHER unit. And both my SORA and UMBER units flew away and hid in my neighbors basment. Whats going on?

Dear fairyjade254,

Your TSUNAMI unit is skeptical of the PERIL unit's flaming touch. Try adding a CLAY unit and/or a SUNNY unit to help smooth things over.

Sincerely,
WoF Units Co.

==========

Dear dragondance184,

Most likely, your TSUNAMI unit keeps on shooting down your SUNNY unit's helpful suggestions. The SUNNY unit is attempting to assert herself. Try to personally intervene and get the two to talk out their feelings. If you are unsuccessful, try introducing a CLAY unit to the room.

Sincerely,
WoF Units Co.

==========

Dear purpledragon1888,

Your TSUNAMI unit is mistrustful of the DEATHBRINGER unit, as the he has background as an assassin. Give her time to come to terms with the GLORY unit and DEATHBRINER unit's relationship. Another likely possibility is that your TSUNAMI unit has developed romantic feelings towards the GLORY unit, and is acting out of jealousy towards the DEATHBRINGER unit. If this is the case, try bringing in a RIPTIDE unit to tide things over.

Sincerely,
WoF Units Co.

=========

Dear sapphirewolf1624,

Your WINTER unit and QIBLI unit are most likely fighting over the MOONWATCHER unit. As both are somewhat dramatic, they have both shut themselves down until the other admits defeat. To distract them from their fight, point your WINER unit in the direction of the nearest HAILSTORM unit, and tell the QIBLI unit that a THORN unit desperately requires his assistance.
As for the odd behavior of your other units, we regret to inform you that our programmers have no idea what to make of this. We suggest interviewing each unit separately to figure out what happened.

Sincerely,

WoF Units Co.

My past problems have been fixed, it turns out my SORA and UMBER units were being running from my ICICLE unit and i now sorted everything out.
But when I left my TSUNAMI unit, SCARLET unit, GLORY unit and GILL unit together. There were 3 smoldering heaps of metal, and an injured GLORY unit when i came back. Not long after my FATESPEAKER unit proposed to my STARLIGHT unit which is perfectly fine. However my SUNNY unit locked herself away in my room afterwards. When i finally managed to get the door down with help from my CLAY and PERIL units, my SUNNY unit had deactivated. Whats going on, and what do you suggest to do?

My SORA unit set off a bomb in my house which killed my BIGTAIL and CARNELIAN units, and injured my TAMARIN unit. What do I do?

My FRUIT BAT unit picked all the flowers in my garden and refuses to help me clean up.

My SCARLET unit has stolen my sapphire necklace.

My MASTERMIND unit took apart my legos and started experimenting on them. My STARFLIGHT unit gave them back and I spent four hours putting them back together. I had my ORCHID unit guard them, but the next day both she and the legos had disappeared!

My BATTLEWINNER unit nearly burned my house down when she jumped into the fireplace, after fighting with one of my ICEWING units.

I have so many problems with my units...

My GLORY unit is wonderful, but she strangled my MAGNIFICENT unit with a hammock when I was buying guavas a grocery store.

My DARKSTALKER unit is fighting with my MYSTERYNW unit

Most of my units from the NIGHTWING and ICEWING unit lines are either terrified of or attempting to kill my DARKSTALKER unit.

Dear ghostlynx120,

Place an order for a RIPNAMI EGG unit immediately. As for what happened, either ask your parents or the nearest MAYFLY unit.

Sincerely,
WoF Units Co.

==========

Dear bearbear4426,

Your FIERCETEETH unit, STRONGWINGS unit, and PREYHUNTER unit are most likely scheming something, and your SUNNY unit has followed them to find out their plans. You can now easily locate your missing units with a recently made mobile device application (WoF Unit Tracker).

Sincerely,
WoF Units Co.

==========

Dear sapphirewolf1624,

Your SCARLET unit must have made your other units battle to the death in a gladiator arena. Your GLORY unit is the sole survivor. We offer out deepest condolenses.

Sincerely,
WoF Units Co.

========

Dear artisticdragon426,

We suspect that your TSUNAMI unit is hungry and looking for food. To remedy this, take her on a fishing trip and stock your freezer with salmon patties.

Sincerely,
WoF Units Co.

==========

Dear wolffire 1040,

Due to your sheer number of complaints, we recommend returning your units to their place of production or selling them online. It is not recommended to have more than 6 units. As for the problems concerning your ICEWING model line units and your NIGHTWING model line units, you simply have too many incompatible units living together.

Sincerely,
WoF Units Co.

Ok... so I went fishing... and atleast she stopped eating the sushi...
But she is still trying to strangle my fish. I had to get a new one... Is there a reason for this?

And also my other units are running late... I haven't gotten the package... is it possible that a unit is intercepting the mail like the system in TBN? That's just my wierd theory...

And is now hunting down all of the units that were smart enough to hide from my DEATHBRINGER unit. Please advise.

Dear artisticdragon426,

Your TSUNAMI unit could be suffering from the after-effects of a childhood trauma involving that particular kind of fish. As such, she relates the fish with violence and danger, and labeled it as a threat.
Also, it is possible that your other units do not want the presence of more units, or maybe the paritucular units you have ordered. We are tracking your missing units now.

Dear WoF Units Co,

I recently ordered a TSUNAMI unit to give my STARFLIGHT unit (who was still trying to act like a bat) some company. My new TSUNAMI unit started hitting my STARFLIGHT unit repeatedly over the head. My STARFLIGHT unit has now stopped pretending to be a bat, but he has also fled to a nearby cornfield and is attacking a scarecrow. I am doing my best to keep my TSUNAMi unit from attacking him, but I fear my barricade won't last much longer. Do you have any suggestions? Or are my units simply malfunctioning?

Dear dragoncat,

Your TSUNAMI unit may have damaged your STARFLIGHT unit's internal programming when she hit his head. Your STARFLIGHT unit now believes that he is a crow, and that it is his sole duty and purpose in life to rid crowkind of the nefarious scarecrow. We suggest de-activating him and taking him to the nearest MAYFLY unit.
